- 14.4.2.3 up to 3 individuals co-opted by the charity trustees who shall serve as charity trustees until the conclusion of the next AGM;
- 14.4.3 Full members and authorised representatives of associate members, affiliated members and of statutory authority members shall be entitled by ordinary resolution at a general meeting of the charity to elect any full member, associate member or any authorised representative of affiliated members and of statutory authority members (in each case) willing to act to be a charity trustee either to fill a vacancy or as an additional charity trustee PROVIDED THAT the number of persons in office at any one time who have been so appointed by the members shall not exceed 12 (or such other maximum number as may be determined by the charity in general meeting).
- 14.4.4 Any election of charity trustees made under clause 14.4.2 shall be minuted and the minutes shall be signed by the chair of the meeting and submitted to the secretary.
- 14.4.5 In order to be eligible to vote at any meeting of the charity trustees, every charity trustee must-
- 14.4.5.1 be or become a full or associate member of the CIO (save for any authorised representative of affiliated members and of statutory authority members) and
- 14.4.5.2 sign a declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the CIO.
- 14.4.6 Subject as aforesaid, the CIO may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a charity trustee either to fill a vacancy or as an additional charity trustee and may also determine the rotation (if applicable) in which any additional charity trustees are to retire.
- 14.4.7 The charity trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a charity trustee either to fill vacancy or as an additional trustee PROVIDED THAT the appointment does not cause the number of charity trustees to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the constitution as the maximum number of charity trustees. A charity trustee so appointed shall hold office only until the next following AGM and shall not be taken into account in determining the charity trustees who are to retire by rotation (if applicable) at the meeting. If not reappointed at such AGM, he or she shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof.

15. Rotation of charity trustees

15.1 At every annual general meeting of the members of the CIO, one-third of the charity trustees shall retire from office. If the number of charity trustees is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office, but if there is only one charity trustee, he or she shall retire;

16. Information for new charity trustees

The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment:

- 16.1 a copy of this constitution and any amendments made to it; and
- 16.2 a copy of the CIO's latest trustees' annual report and statement of accounts.

17 Retirement and removal of charity trustees

- 17.1 A charity trustee ceases to hold office if he or she –
- 17.1.1 retires by notifying the CIO in writing (but only if enough charity trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings);
 - 17.1.2 is absent without the permission of the charity trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated;
 - 17.1.3 dies;
 - 17.1.4 becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;
 - 17.1.5 is removed by the members of the CIO in accordance with clause 17.2; or
 - 17.1.6 is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 178 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).
- 17.2 A charity trustee shall be removed from office if a resolution to remove that trustee is proposed at a general meeting of the members called for that purpose and properly convened in accordance with clause 13.4, and the resolution is passed by a [simple][two-thirds] majority of votes cast at the meeting.
- 17.3 A resolution to remove a charity trustee in accordance with this clause shall not take effect unless the individual concerned has been given at least 14 clear days' notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been given a reasonable opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to the members of the CIO.

18 Reappointment of charity trustees

Any person who retires as a charity trustee by rotation or by giving notice to the CIO is eligible for reappointment. A charity trustee who has served for three consecutive terms may not be reappointed for a fourth consecutive term but may be reappointed after an interval of at least one year.

19 Taking of decisions by charity trustees

Any decision may be taken either:

- 19.1 at a meeting of the charity trustees; or
- 19.2 by resolution in writing or electronic form agreed by a simple majority of the charity trustees, which may comprise either a single document or several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more charity trustees has signified their agreement provided that:
 - 19.2.1 a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the charity trustees eligible to vote; and
 - 19.2.2 a simple majority of charity trustees has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

20 Delegation by charity trustees

- 20.1 The charity trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee or committees, and, if they do, they must determine the terms and conditions on which the delegation is made. The charity trustees may at any time alter those terms and conditions, or revoke the delegation.
- 20.2 This power is in addition to the power of delegation in the General Regulations and any other power of delegation available to the charity trustees, but is subject to the following requirements -
 - 20.2.1 a committee may consist of two or more persons, but at least one member of each committee must be a charity trustee;
 - 20.2.2 the acts and proceedings of any committee must be brought to the attention of the charity trustees as a whole as soon as is reasonably practicable; and
 - 20.2.3 the charity trustees shall from time to time review the arrangements which they have made for the delegation of their powers.

21 Meetings and proceedings of charity trustees

21.1 Calling meetings

- 21.1.1 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the charity trustees.
- 21.1.2 Subject to that, the charity trustees shall decide how their meetings are to be called, and what notice is required.

21.2 Chairing of meetings

The charity trustees may appoint one of their number to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment. If no-one has been so appointed, or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within 10 minutes after the time of the meeting, the charity trustees present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.

21.3 Procedure at meetings

- 21.3.1 No decision shall be taken at a meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the decision is taken. The quorum is three charity trustees, or the number nearest to one third of the total number of charity trustees, whichever is greater, or such larger number as the charity trustees may decide from time to time. A charity trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which he or she is not entitled to vote.

22.1.2 who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;

22.1.3 who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

if, without the vote of that charity trustee and that charity trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the charity trustees at a quorate meeting.

22.2 Clause 22.1 does not permit a charity trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the charity trustees or of a committee of charity trustees if, but for clause 22.1, the resolution would have been void, or if the charity trustee has not complied with clause 7 (Conflicts of interest).

23 Advisers to the charity trustees

23.1 There are two types of advisers to the charity trustees: advisers elected by junior members and advisers appointed by the charity trustees. Junior members are given the special right to elect advisers as provided hereunder because they are not entitled to vote at general meetings of the CIO.

23.2 Junior members shall be entitled from time to time and at any time to elect any person who is willing to act to be an adviser to the charity trustees (without the right to vote), and to remove a person appointed by them as an adviser to the charity trustees from office provided always that the number of advisers to the charity trustees appointed by them and in office at any one time shall not exceed two. Any such election or removal shall take place in accordance with the rules.

23.3 Every such election or removal shall be by notice in writing, signed by a majority of the members under 18 years of age and given to the Secretary and shall take effect upon receipt.

23.4 The charity trustees may at any time and from time to time appoint any person of any age to the position of adviser to the charity trustees.

23.5 An adviser to the charity trustees shall advise and assist the charity trustees but shall not attend meetings of the charity trustees except at the invitation of the trustees, and when present at meetings of the charity trustees he or she shall not be entitled to vote, nor be counted in the quorum, but subject to this he or she shall as adviser to the charity trustees have such powers, authorities and duties as the charity trustees may in the particular case from time to time determine.

23.6 An adviser to the charity trustees shall not be deemed a charity trustee, nor shall he or she be a charity trustee for any of the purposes of the constitution or (so far as provision may lawfully be made in this behalf) for any of the purposes of the Charities Act 2011.

- 23.7 Without prejudice to any rights or claims the adviser to the charity trustees may have under any contract with the CIO, any appointment as an adviser may be terminated by the charity trustees at any time.
